

Christ is King of earth and heaven!
Let His subjects all proclaim, in the splendour of His temple, honour to His holy name.

Christ is King! No soul created can refuse to bend the knee to the God made man who reigneth as 'twas promised, from the tree.

Christ is King! Let humble sorrow for our past neglect atone, for the lack of faithful service to the Master Whom we own.

Christ is King! Let joy and gladness greet Him; let His courts resound with the praise of faithful subjects to His love in honour bound.

Christ is King! In health and sickness, till we breathe our latest breath, till we greet in highest heaven, Christ the victor over death.
