

Father and life-giver, grace of Christ impart;
He, the Word incarnate – food for mind and heart.
Children of the promise, homage now we pay;
sacrificial banquet cheers the desert way.

Wine and bread the symbols – love and life convey,
offered by Your people, work and joy portray.
All we own consigning, nothing is retained;
tokens of our service, gifts and song contain.

Transformation wondrous – water into wine;
mingled in the Godhead we are made divine.
Birth into His body brought us life anew,
total consecration – fruit from grafting true.

Christ, the head and members living now as one,
offered to the Father by His holy Son;
and our adoration will be purified,
by the Holy Spirit breathing through our lives.
