

Glory to Thee, Lord God!
In faith and hope we sing.
Through this completed sacrifice our love and praise we bring.
We give Thee for our sins
a price beyond all worth, which none could ever fitly pay but this Thy son on earth.

Here is the Lord of all,
to Thee in glory slain;
of worthless givers, worthy gift
a victim without stain.
Through Him we give Thee thanks, with Him we bend the knee, in Him be all our life, Who is our one true way to Thee.

So may this sacrifice
we offer here this day, be joined with our poor lives in all we think and do and say.
By living true to grace,
for Thee and Thee alone, our sorrows, labours, and our joys will be His very own.
