

God everlasting, wonderful, and holy,
Father most gracious, we who stand before Thee here at Thine altar, as Thy Son has taught us, come to adore Thee.

Countless the mercies Thou hast lavished on us, source of all blessings to all creatures living;
to Thee we render, for Thy love o'erflowing, humble thanksgiving.

Now in remembrance of our great Redeemer, dying on Calvary, rising and ascending, through Him we offer what He ever offers, sinners befriending.

Strength to the living, rest to the departed, grant, Holy Father, through this pure oblation:
may the life-giving bread for ever bring us health and salvation.
