

God, at creation's dawn,
over a world unborn,
Your Spirit soared.
By word and water deign that this same Spirit reign in those now born again, through Christ our Lord.

We, who in Adam fell,
are, as the Scriptures tell, saved and restored.
For, when these rites are done, dying we are made one,
rising we overcome,
with Christ our Lord.

Hear us, Your Church, rejoice, singing with grateful voice, Father adored
telling our faith anew, greeting with welcome true children new born to You, in Christ our Lord.
