

*I'll sing God's praises,
now and evermore.*

He is my guide and my Shepherd,
now and evermore.
He gives me rest in green pastures,
now and evermore.

Near restful waters He leads me,
now and evermore.
Along the right path He keeps me,
now and evermore.

His rod and crook are my comfort,
now and evermore.
With oil my head is anointed,
now and evermore.

His loving favours pursue me,
now and evermore.
His house, my dwelling for ever,
now and evermore.
