

If God is our Defender,
who will th' accuser be?
His only Son He spared not,
but gave Him graciously.
When God Himself grants pardon, who ventures to condemn?
Will Jesus Christ, the Saviour,
Who died and rose for men?

Can anything divide us
from that most loving Lord?
Can pain, or tribulation?
Can famine, peril, sword?
No, none of these can cause us from His great love to fall;
for by the strength He gave us,
we triumph over all.

Of this we can be certain,
and sing with every breath:
that nought that is, or will be,
and neither life nor death,
and nothing in creation,
below us or above,
can tear us from Christ Jesus,
and from His Father's love.
