

*Jesus, the Holy Lamb of God
carried the cross for me.
Jesus, the holy Lamb of God
died that I might be free.*

He Who is God made Himself low:
a servant, and humbler yet,
He bowed His head as He was led obedient unto His death.

Therefore has God raised Him on high and named Him our Saviour and Lord;
all knees will bend in praise without end
to Jesus for ever adored.
