

*Leave your country and your people leave your fam'ly and your friends.
Travel to the land He'll show you:
God will bless the ones He sends.*

Go like Abraham before you,
when he heard the Father's call,
walking forth in faith and trusting;
God is Master of us all.

Sometimes God's Word is demanding,
leave security you know,
breaking ties and bonds that hold you,
when the voice of God says: 'Go.'

Take the path into the desert, barren seems the rock and sand.
God will lead you through the desert
when you follow His command.

Go with courage up the mountain,
climb the narrow, rocky ledge,
leave behind all things that hinder,
go with only God as pledge.
