

May Christ, the Lord of Cana's feast,
Who made the water wine,
be welcomed as the honoured Guest,
our risen Master now confessed,
God's messenger and sign. (2)

What God has joined, we hear Him say,
let no-one tear apart!
With His two servants here today
may Christ's own love for ever stay, true bond of mind and heart; (2)

Whatever joys or sorrow come,
may steadfastness be theirs!
God's truth and kindness grace their home,
His presence fill the humblest room,
His Spirit stir their prayers; (2)

With brightened eyes of faith
we'll see God's plan for them made plain:
so shall our hearts together
be uplifted in the Trinity and echo the Amen; (2)
