

*My people, I hear you calling,
I will forgive you your sin, if you believe.
My people, you know my love outlasts all time.
So constant, forgiving, my love will set you free.*

You who search in the desert,
you who find My pardon there,
you have found salvation,
your God has come to you from afar.

All of you who are blind and lame,
all who are my scattered sheep,
you, I will bring back to me,
My hand will gather you, from every land.

You who once turned away from Me,
you who show regret and shame,
you will now rejoice again;
you are forgiven, give thanks and praise!
