

*My soul rejoices in God, my Saviour.
My spirit finds its joy in God, the living God.*

My soul proclaims His mighty deeds.
My spirit sings the greatness of His name.

His mercy flows throughout the land and ev'ry generation knows His love.

He casts the mighty from their thrones
and raises up the poor and lowly to new life.

He fills the hungry with good things.
With empty hands he sends the rich away.

Just as He promised Abraham,
He comes to free His people, Israel.
