

Peace is the gift of heaven to earth,
softly enfolding our fears.
Peace is the gift of Christ to the world, given for us.
He is the Lamb Who bore the pain of peace.

Peace is the gift of Christ to His Church,
wound of the lance of His love.
Love is the pain He suffered for all, offered to us:
Oh, to accept the wound that brings us peace!

Joy is the gift the Spirit imparts,
born of the heavens and earth.
We are His children, children of joy, people of God.
He is our Lord, our peace, our love, our joy!
