

Praise now your God, every tongue, ev'ry nation,
tell the good news to the next generation:
Christ, the Redeemer, Who rose from the dead,
stays with His people as life-giving Bread.

Alleluia, God is great! Alleluia, God is good!

Christ gave His word at the multiplication.
Bread and sweet wine are now Christ our oblation.
Cross and Last Supper are with us today.
Life now abounds, and God's will we obey.

Here is your Saviour, give deep adoration,
sing of His glory in glad celebration.
Come, for His manna is food for the road,
strength for the journey, our glory foreshowed.
