

*Sing to the Bride, sing to the Groom,
for they love one another in Jesus the Lord.
Sing to the Bride, sing to the Groom,
sing to Jesus Christ.*

Yahweh has brought you to the bone of your bones,
has joined you to the flesh of your flesh.

You are the sign of the New Jerusalem,
come down, out of heaven from our God.

Love one another, for love is of God,
the person whom love is born in God.

Faith, hope and love be with you unto the end,
the greatest of these is surely love.

Vain is your labour, all your planning, your dreams
unless the Lord builds your home.

May God protect you all the days of your life
may peace and prosperity be yours.
