

*The word of God is more desired than gold;
the word of God is sweeter than honey.
Light to our eyes, the Lord's command is clear;
greater than gold: the message of eternal life.*

The law of God is perfect,
gives the soul new life.
The Lord's decree is to be trusted, fills the simple heart with wisdom.

The percepts of the Lord
fill our hearts with joy.
The Lord's command is clear and truthful;
giving light for the eyes.

Much more desired than gold,
more than finest gold;
the word of God is so much sweeter,
sweeter than the honeycomb.
