

*We are bound for the promised land,
we're bound for the promised land;
Oh, who will come and go with us?
We are bound for the promised land.*

We seek You, Lord, and all Your strength
Your presence constantly, rememb'ring all Your marv'lous works,
and all that You can be:

You are the Lord, You are the God
Whose judgements fill the earth;
You're mindful of Your covenant;
we can trust You at Your Word.

To Abraham You made a vow,
a promise to his son:
I'll give to you the promised land!
Your inheritance is won.

Give glory to the Father, Son,
and Spirit, One in Three;
as it was in the beginning,
it shall forever be.
