

We gather together
as brothers and sisters
for Jesus our Lord truly lives.
He's risen in glory;
the full gospel story,
what freedom and courage it gives.

*He binds up the wounded and the broken.
He gives the poor His chalice and His bread.
The Father has raised Him,
together we'll raise Him,
and march with the Lord at our head.*

For mother and father,
for sister and brother,
for children and husband and wife,
His Word spreads like flame,
for all people came,
bringing peace and the seeds of new life.

God takes what is foolish,
He chooses the weakest
to put wise and strong both to shame.
Give thanks to the Father,
we live in Christ Jesus,
bow low and sing sweetly His name.
